

PRESS RELEASE

Troubadours, Rockers & Punks

Images from the 70's & 80's by Richard McCaffrey
November 17, 2006-January 6, 2007

Opening Reception:
Friday November 17, 2006 - 7PM till 10PM
Refreshments and live music
The Dryden Gallery
27 Dryden Lane
Providence, RI 02904
401.421.6196

The newly renovated and expanded Dryden Gallery located at Providence Picture Frame is pleased to announce an exhibition by Providence photographer Richard McCaffrey. During the 1970's & 80's Richard freelanced for magazines such as Rolling Stone, Cream, Guitar Player and other publications. He was Chief Photographer for BAM, The California music Magazine from 1975 to 85 and also worked with Bill Graham Presents Concert Promotions. His photographs have appeared in numerous national and international books, publications and Albums/CD's (see attached BIO).

The exhibition will be titled, Troubadours, Rockers & Punks - Images from the 1970's & 80's by Richard McCaffrey and will consist of over 150 photos of the most influential musicians of that time period such as: Bob Dylan, Rolling Stones, Crosby, Stills, & Nash, Neil Young, Emmy Lou Harris, Tom Petty, The Blues Brothers, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Led Zeppelin, Fleetwood Mac, BB King, Santana, David Bowie, Blondie, Elvis Costello, Patti Smith, Lou Reed The Sex Pistols, and many others.

Dryden Gallery is donating 10% of the proceeds from the sale of photographs during the showing to The Station Fire Victims Fund and The Doc Fund.

The exhibition is co-sponsored by WHJY Radio, The Providence Phoenix, Providence Picture Frame and Renaissance Creative Imaging.

A selection of photos from the exhibition is attached to this e-mail. If you would like photo(s) that will remain exclusive to your publication for the duration of the showing contact Richard.